During last call, Commissioner Marian Solomon-Gaines thanked everyone for assisting with the MLK event. The program was geared toward the youth. The speakers answered questions concerning civil rights. She apologized for not having a MLK Parade. Possibility of a Black History Parade. During Work Session a citizen discussed how strange it is to not see people within our City wearing mask. The Delta Sorority is launching wearing a mask for 100 days starting January 20, 2021. Please wear your mask.

Commissioner Hopkins encouraged everyone to wear mask. Waycross had 8 more deaths reported on today. Employees please wear a mask. COVID is a serious situation.

Commissioner Threat encouraged everyone to wear a mask. He encountered COVID. Please wear a mask. First Responders are risking their lives every day. Please wear a mask. Commissioner Threat inquired about when My Place Lounge could pick up the privilege license.

Mayor Pro Tem Henry Strickland thanked Chief Eddins for the prayer. Sheriff Randy Royal was recognized for years of service given before his death. Mayor Pro Tem Henry Strickland thanked the departments representing the City of Waycross.

Mayor Michael-Angelo James shared concerns. There is a lot of misinformation and miscommunication. We make perceptions off what we feel. If there are questions, contact the City. Don't make assumptions; do research and gain information. Votes are made by the Commission. Once the Commission approves it, I sign it.

After last call, Commissioner John Threat made the motion to adjourn the meeting. Mayor Pro Tem Henry Strickland seconded the motion. All voted in favor and Mayor Michael-Angelo James adjourned the meeting.
